ANZAC DAY 2024

'They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old; Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning We will remember them!'

'Lest we forget'

Medley Golf

Congratulations to young Jack Bradstreet from Everglades Country Club on winning last Saturday's single Stableford event here at Crescent Head Country Club.

Just eight years old, Jack played his way around our beautiful course to find himself sole leader in the morning's play with 36 points.

There were some late charges by the rest of the field, but Jack's score held on to win the day.

Runner-up was Joel Faulkner with 35 points. Ball prizes to Dave Tassell (34), Jim Bozinovski (34), and Jack's proud dad Anthony Bradstreet (34).

Nearest to the pins on the second and the sixth – club president Robyn Eller.

Vets Golf

Our veteran golfers enjoyed a 14-hole 4BBB multiplier competition on Australia's only accredited six-hole golf course on Tuesday.

The team of Jim Newton and Nelson Williams smashed the competition, handing in a score of 63 points.

Runner up was the team of Jim Bozinovski and Peter Stevens with 56 points.

Nearest to pins:
 Second - Jim Newton
 Sixth - Jim Newton (No that's not a typo)
 Maybe Jim will leave some prizes for the others

Next Tuesday as our vet's play in a 14-hole Stableford competition.

Ladies Golf

Robyn Eller's fine form continued on Wednesday as she scored 32 points to win the Ladies Stableford competition.

Runner-up was Louise Jorgensen on 25.

All golfers with a GA handicap are welcome to play in the Ladies Stableford competitions, with tee-off at 8.30am on Wednesdays.

If you would like to book a fun game of golf, mini-golf, tennis or lawn bowls, please contact the Sports Shop on 6566 1211.
